

Maintaining your brand's standards at events and locations across the country requires constant effort, especially when investing in printed assets. We've heard these pain points time and again when it comes to sourcing and ordering custom marketing materials.

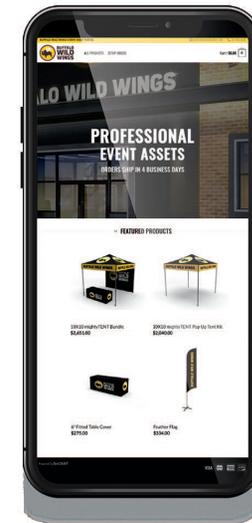

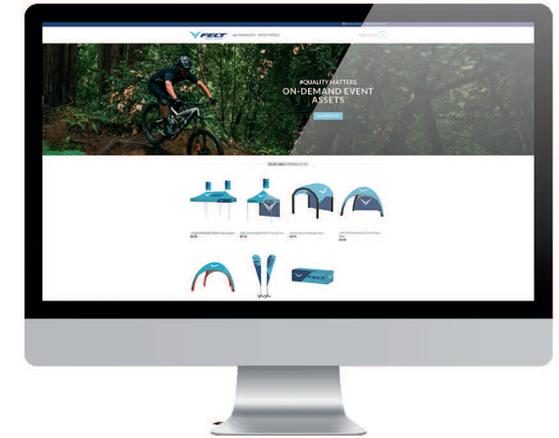

Most Brands want...

- An efficient and easy online ordering process .
- A way to manage billing across numerous locations and regions.
- Management of brand guidelines across a widespread team.
- An easier way to re-order branded assets and accessories.

Sound like you? Select TentCraft partners can now take advantage of our online portal service free of charge. Each portal contains a curated list of approved and branded TentCraft products, ready for teams to purchase quickly

Supported and updated by the TentCraft technology team, this e-commerce solution creates a custom online experience that allows teams to purchase only pre-approved branded products — ensuring the company's brand is represented in the field the correct way. Their order is sent from TentCraft directly to the location needed, with no time wasted reinventing the wheel on asset design, and no excess shipping costs.

Contact your representative to schedule an online portal demo now and learn how clients are using this cost-free option to maintain their brand while saving time.
